IMPORTANT

The Disclaimer

The organisers cannot be held responsible for any damage or loss during the North Yorkshire Mini Adventure 2011. This event is not a timed rally, or competitive event and is held on the Public Highway where other non event road users will be present, in the form of vehicles, cyclists, walkers and horse riders within the National Park. In participating in this event, you agree to conform to the Road Traffic Act, and obey all signs and signals as stated in the Highway Code. You will respect other road users, and will drive with caution. Anybody found to be a nuisance or a danger in any way to themselves and/or other road users will be asked to leave the event, and maybe reported to the local Police. All vehicles must have valid Insurance cover, a valid MOT certificate, and display a valid Tax Disc. The organisers cannot be held responsible for drivers' actions. Drivers are in control of the vehicle at all times, and if for any reason a vehicle is involved in an accident, then it is the drivers responsibility to inform and pass details to all parties concerned if any at the scene. This event is NOT an organised convoy, drivers won't take risks in trying to maintain a convoy by pulling over & stopping on roads to wait for other drivers as there is grave danger in doing so. Safe meeting places will be stated in the pace notes.

There is no breakdown vehicle for this event, therefore it is advised your own personal breakdown cover is arranged.

I'm participating in the North Yorkshire Mini Adventure 2011, I agree to the above the terms as signed below, and will drive with caution, respect peoples property, and other road users
